Flexible, innovative and focused on transforming you into a leader.

Elevate your career by combining your technical expertise with the business and leadership skills today’s employers seek. Taught by expert faculty using media-rich digital learning tools, professional master’s degrees from Georgia Tech offer you immediately
The proven excellence of Georgia Tech in a convenient format.

Our professional master's degrees include a hybrid learning experience that combines online classes interspersed with three campus visits over two years. You progress through your program with a cohort allowing you to build deep connections with others in your field, draw from each other's experiences and create networks to last throughout your career.

Master's in Applied Systems Engineering (PMASE)

- Receive a comprehensive systems engineering overview from a nationally top-ranked program.
- Gain hands-on experience through opportunities to collaborate, create project plans, and identify risk areas and solutions by working on real-world projects.
- Learn to consider each component of the project life cycle and learn to apply it in real-time.

Application Deadlines:
Standard Application Deadline - March 1
Final Application Deadline - May 1

Master's in Manufacturing Leadership (PMML)

- Build your skills in operations and personnel management and propel your organization forward by working on practical problems.
- Gain knowledge on operational and performance boosting strategies and essential concepts like sustainable system design and continuous improvement.
- Enhance your ability to lead change and handle conflict.

Application Deadlines:
Standard Application Deadline - March 1
Final Application Deadline - May 1

Master's in Occupational Safety and Health (PMOSH)

- Develop a deep understanding of safety and health programs concepts and principles.
- Become well versed in identifying opportunities for improvement and producing first-rate action plans.
- Understand and apply business, technical, and analytical insights to successfully mitigate challenges.

Application Deadlines:
Standard Application Deadline - March 1
Final Application Deadline - May 1

pe.gatech.edu/online-degrees